C Em

Like a mockingbird I sing my song

Am G

Stole out right and played all wrong

C Am G

In the darkest hour of the night

C Em

Oh and I ain't made the Opry yet

Am G

Miss you now but hey no sweat

C Am G

I can get along alone al - right

C Em

City lights and pretty clothes

Am G

Silver linings, wrapped up bows

C Am G

Autumn leaves and fall and winter snow

C Em

Well I'm hoping now that where you are

Am G

They all think you're a movie star

C A^m G
Cause you are the most famous girl I know

F G C G A^m
Chorus And I'm waiting now to catch you in the corner of my eye

F G C
I know you're gonna darken up my door

F G
Well I got that old time feeling babe

C G A^m
Well it still ain't passed me by

F G C
Well I've got that old time feeling like before

Interlude

C E^m A^m G
[Bridge]

F G
Well I'm the same old me you know

C
Skrewing up the status quo

F G C
Trouble all the way up to my neck

F G
And I can keep it cool and new

C
until you catch me half past two

F G
Just about that time and I'm a wreck

C E^m
Verse 2 This old world will spin again

A^m G

Play me like a violin

C A^m G

Knock all of the wind out of my chest

C E^m

Well I don't mind you playing me

A^m G

Just keep it in a major key

C A^m G C

Now you're waking up and I can get some re...st

F G C G A^m

Chorus And I'm waiting now to catch you in the corner of my eye

F G C

I know you're gonna darken up my door

F G

Well I got that old time feeling babe

C G A^m

Well it still ain't passed me by

F G C

Well I've got that old time feeling like before
